UNITED STATES,

Plaintiff,

v.

DOMINGO MONTES aka DOMINGO
MONTES-MEDINA,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:95-CR-0274-RFB

ORDER

The Court has before it two motions (ECF Nos. 159 and 161) from Defendant Domingo Montes to clarify with the Bureau of Prisons this Court's previous order as to the collection of money from the Defendant during his incarceration to satisfy the fine imposed as part of Montes' sentence.

The Court has reviewed the record in this case. Montes is correct that the Court specifically ordered on January 18, 2000 (Doc. No. 150) that Montes would not have to begin payments towards his fine until the commencement of his supervised release term.

1           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Bureau of Prisons shall NOT deduct any
2 money from any accounts of Domingo Montes for the payment of his court-ordered fine
3 unless it has been authorized to do so by this Court. Defendant Domingo Montes' motions
4 (ECF No. 159) and (ECF No. 161) for Clarification and Disposition are GRANTED.

5           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall mail copy of this order to
